

October Week #2 Devotionals & Consideration

Hymn: “Admonition”

Oh My people, saith the Spirit, hear the Word of God today; Be not slothful, but obedient; Tis the world’s momentous day.

Let us examine ourselves and consider if we are slothful in keeping God’s commandments. Over and over again we have been told, “Keep my commandments, and seek to bring forth and establish the cause of Zion” D&C 6, 10, 11.

What can you do in your life to become more obedient—that you might be better prepared for the momentous day which is ahead of us?

Study God’s commandments this week. It is important that we know and understand the commandments, for how can we obey that which we do not know? We are counseled to,

“Search these commandments, for they are true and faithful, and the prophecies and promises which are in them shall all be fulfilled” D&C 1:7.

Ask God to open your mind to those commandments you need to be more faithful in obeying.

D&C 5:4b and that you be firm in keeping the commandments wherewith I have commanded you, and if you do this, behold, I grant unto you eternal life, even if you should be slain.

Mosiah 3:6 And we are willing to enter into a covenant with our God, to do His will, and to be obedient to His commandments in all things that He shall command us, all the remainder of our days, that we may not bring upon ourselves a never ending torment, as has been spoken by the angel, that we may not drink out of the cup of the wrath of God.

D&C 34:6a Keep all the commandments and covenants by which ye are bound, and I will cause the heavens to shake for your good, and Satan shall tremble, and Zion shall rejoice upon the hills, and flourish; and Israel shall be saved in Mine own due time.
